I bought "Clancy" as an unstarted 2 year old in 2011. He has been an exceptional horse to train and own. He is responsive and willing to do what is asked. He has mainly been used as a ranch horse. Has had lots of cattle roped on him and all other duties. Clancy can really travel and is very handy in a corral. Been in steep country to desert. A kind and good minded bridle horse.